Annie Wright:
a unique blend of cherished traditions and vital changes for the future . . .

From the worn bricks of the exterior to the many refurbished rooms of the interior, Annie Wright reflects a harmony between old and new ideas.

Annie Wright:
while it serves as an unfailing reminder
of the past century,
it prepares to grow
into a second century.

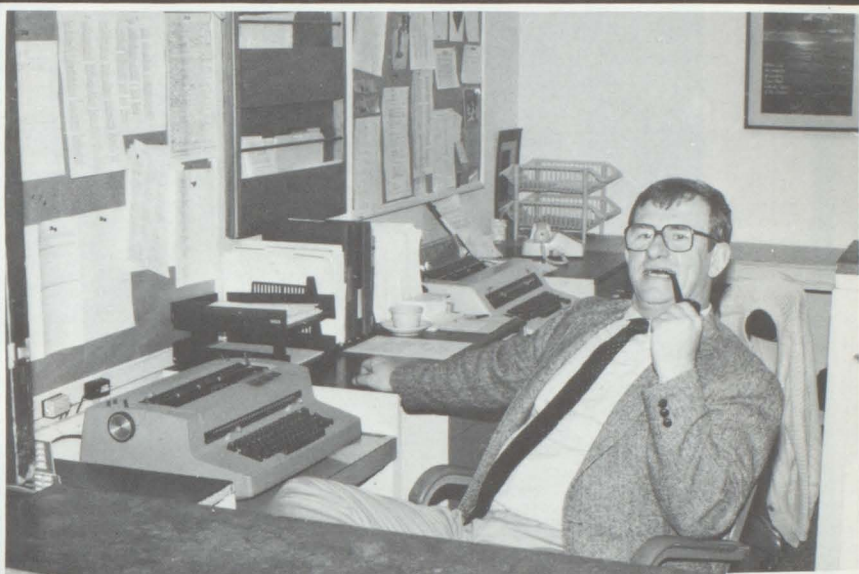

The Senior Class of 1985 dedicates this yearbook to our parents because they are such a special part of our lives. They have watched us grow and change; they have shared in our laughter and our tears. They have given us dreams and the encouragement to make them come true. With love and respect we thank our parents; it is because of their concern, guidance and love that we have become who we are.

Administration

Headmaster: Robert Klarsch

Mr. Klarsch is continually occupied with Annie Wright. Recently he has been busy with the Capital Campaign which is an organized effort to raise money to improve the school. He is also working with the faculty and staff on a self evaluation of Annie Wright for continued accreditation. In the past two years Mr. Klarsch has promoted the advancement of academics and extracurricular activities and has provided excellent leadership as our school goes into its second century.

I appreciate all of you so much!

To Mrs. Becker,

You treat me like one of your daughters. I learned so many valuable things about life from you. And I'll apply them to my daily living. Thank you, also Mr. Becker, Kathleen and Joanne.

To my father and mother,

Thank you very much for giving me this wonderful opportunity to study in the U.S.A.

To Mrs. Ford,

We were neighbors in Japan. We are neighbors in U.S.A. Lucky me! We share common interests and a common background. Thank you and Mr. Ford for your guidance.

To Mr. Miyashita and my classmates,

Thank you for encouraging me to study in the U.S.A. I appreciate your faith in me. Even though I graduate from A.W.S., I still feel a part of your class.

To Mrs. Hanson,

Whenever I am losing courage I will remember your words, "You can do it!" I am looking forward to seeing you in Japan.

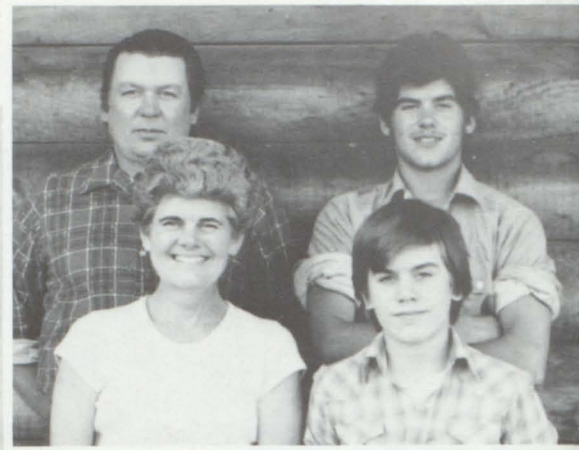

To my sister, Yukari, I could call you whenever I had a problem. You always advised me well. Without your help, I may never have gotten here.

Thank you

To my grandparents, I feel so much gratitude for you. Let's go to see a baseball game together. I hope the Giants will win!

I feel that the good experiences in life along with the difficulties help to build character within. Thank you all for seeing me through the good times and the hard times at A.W.S.

Oh! my Rocky! How much I missed you while I was away. Now, I can take you for walks!

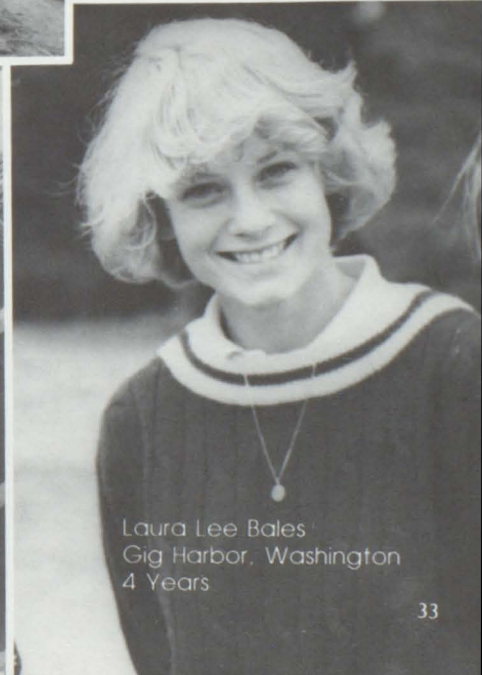

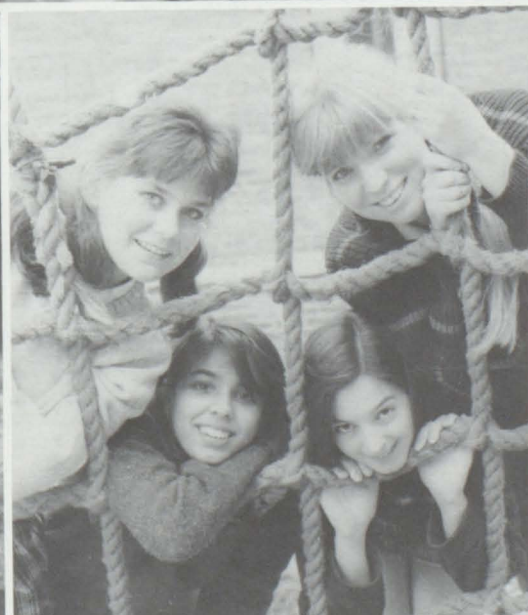

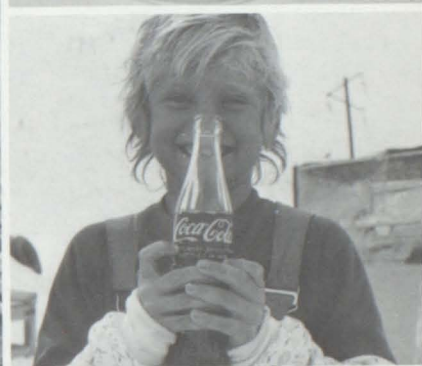

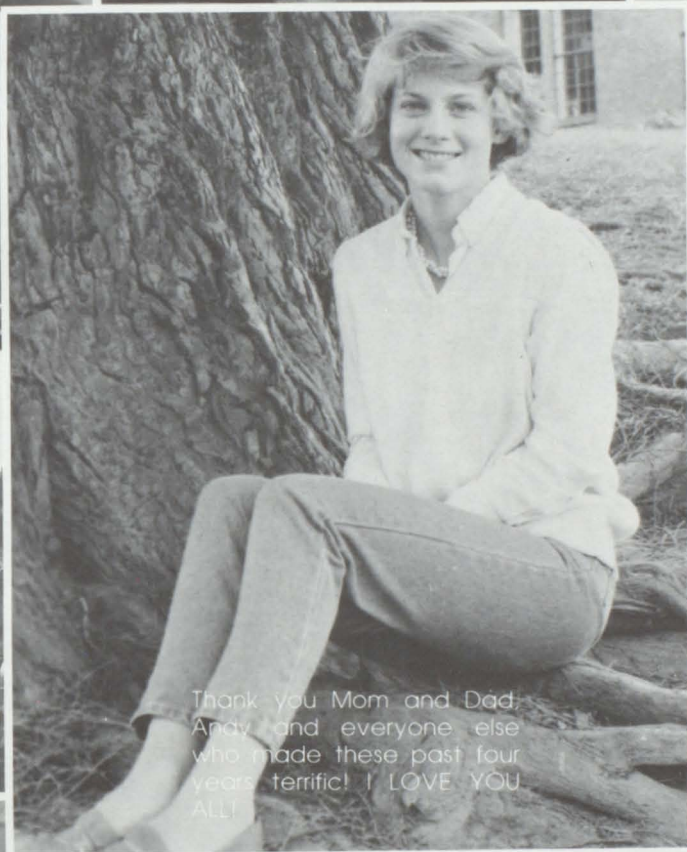

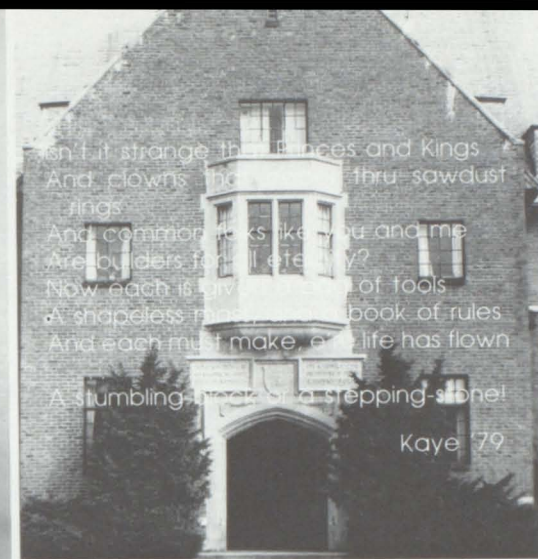

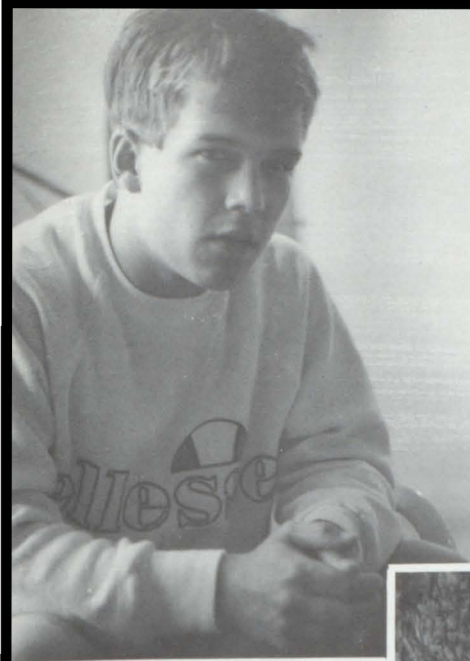

There's a land where the mountains are nameless,
 And the rivers all run God knows where;
 There are lives that are erring and aimless,
 And deaths that just hang by a hair;
 There are hardships that nobody reckons;
 There are valleys unpeopled and still;
 There's a land - oh, it beckons and beckons,
 And I want to go back - and I will.

What of the dreams of the youth? Are they always to be regarded as follies? Are they to be populated with chimeras? Dreams are the shoots and buds of imagination: they have the right to lead pure lives also. Stifle or deform youth's dreams and you destroy the creator.

All of the glory, my life and my love to Jesus, for he alone knew and understood all of me and my depth.

For those who are yet to come through this way, I leave my message . . . Be strong, stand up for what you believe in and be yourself; you are the only you that there is. If one day in the future someone should read this while feeling hopeless, know that there is someone who truly cares.

There is not much one can say about some matters. I realize through the years many of you have been trying to find yourselves, your identity, to belong. In doing so, some of you have given up parts of yourselves to fit in with others, and have said and done other things so that you would be accepted into certain groups.
Well, once you go into the world, I believe you will see what others have tried to explain. It will hit you, and I can just say that I pray you have, in your adventures, found true friends; for it would truly be sad if you had not only sacrificed a part of yourselves, but were still an outcast.

Third Grade: Mrs. Reeve

Our class really likes our third grade room. It is on the second floor and has a heater to lean against on cold mornings, an electric pencil sharpener, and a good view of Puget Sound.

We like our changeable schedule that lets us miss math sometimes. We like studying rocks in science, cursive writing, P.E., pottery, and art. When we stretch our muscles in P.E., we feel like we are accomplishing something. It is the same in class when we stretch our minds. We like the time Mrs. Reeve calls R and R — reading and relaxing after lunch recess.

The best thing about our class is the people. We are good friends who care about one another and are honest with one another. Everybody needs help sometimes and everyone is helpful when a friend needs them. We love parties!!

By the Third Grade

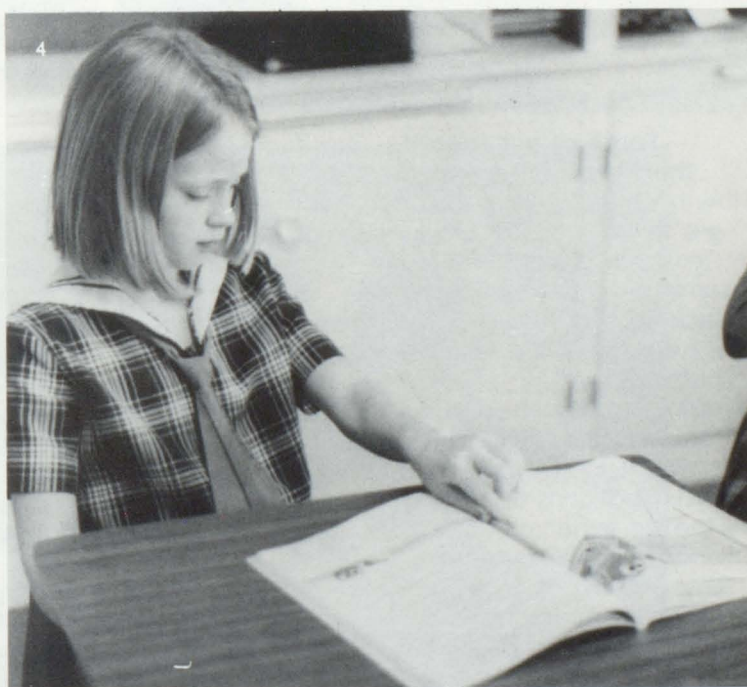

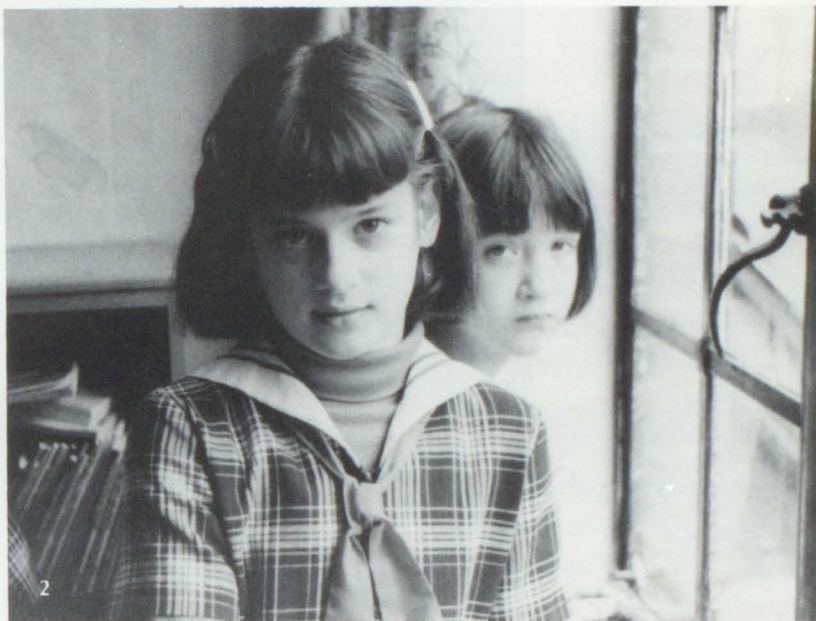

(Bottom) Kristine Klein, Sarah Rhodes, Erica Ezell, Phillip Howell. (Middle) Liberty Jerentowski, Katelyn Vogelzang, Rachel LaCharite, Gabriel Martin. (Top) Jake Guadnola, Joy McBane, Nancy Stauffer, Brienna Dyberg, Lindsay Bush.

2. Lindsay Bush portrays her deep powers of concentration in class.

1. Rachel LaCharite prepares to do her work.
2. Brienna Dyberg and Erica Ezell are captured by the light ... and by the cameras!
3. Kristine Klein discovers that one find out a lot by reading ... and enjoy it!
4. Liberty Jerentowski has finished her work and is ready to take on her next task.

Third Grade Mrs. Sharples

Some of our favorite third grade memories ...

How hard we work and how proud we were of our production of Christmas Carol.

Learning cursive writing made us really proud.

The neat things we learned in computer class.

Walking to the beach to collect rocks for our rock study.

Learning how to study for and take tests-That was hard!

All the fun experiments we did in science; especially when Mrs. Sharples had a root beer float to demonstrate three types of matter-solid, liquid and gas!

The noisy radiator in our room we named the Lion.

The fun we had making Christmas tree ornaments and weaving.

Saying the times tables in our dreams!

Now what's $9+6$ again?
Reading lots of interesting stories.
The surprise toast we shared when Mrs. Sharples told us she was going to have a baby.

The food we sampled from the countries we studied: like curry from Nepal. Making our Halloween mural and not always getting the paint on the picture!

Learning how to divide with our division boards; Oh! Oh! There goes another box of beans!

Going to the starlab at the Pacific Science Center.

The stories Mrs. Sharples read to us of Mrs. Frisby and Narnia.

Creating our scale solar system in the hall - it took a lot of work but it was worth it!

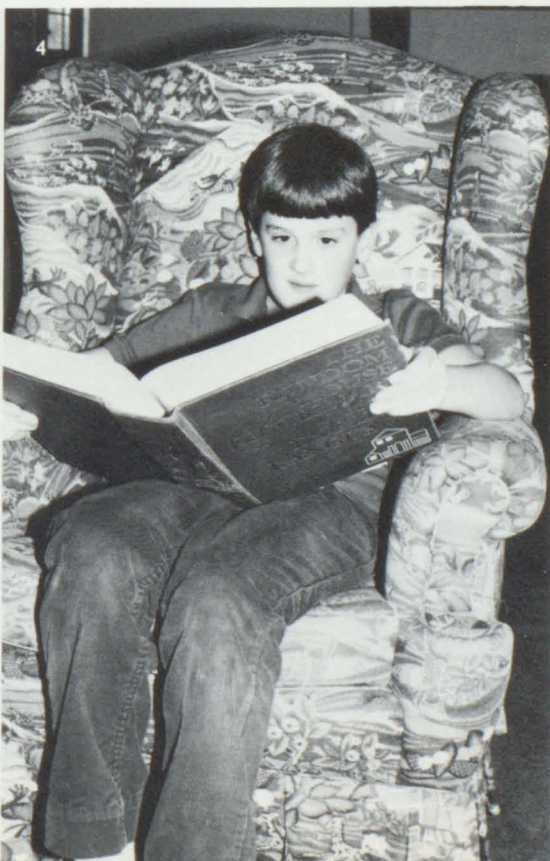

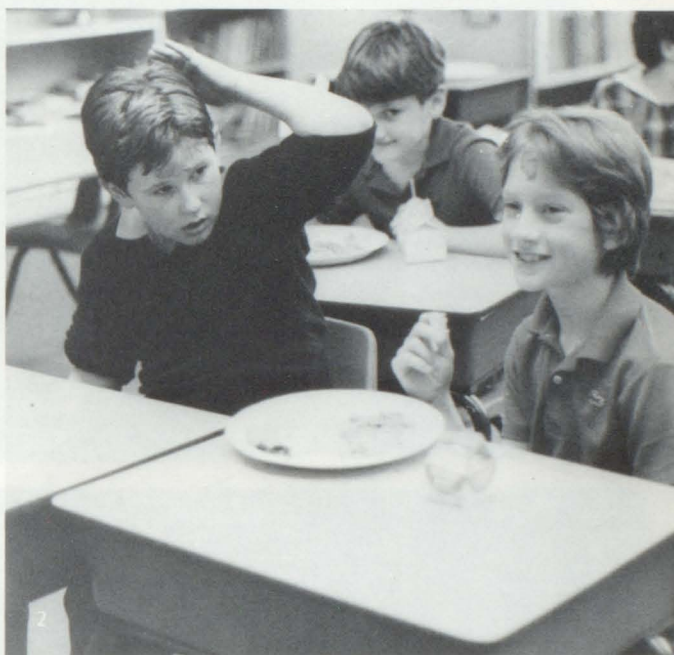

Most of all learning and growing together as part of the Annie Wright family.

Maria Scafe is satisfied with the goodies on her plate.

1. Joy Gonyea skips rope during recess.
2. Jay Hale and Alex Credgington enjoy their meal.
3. Kelly Moore, Jennifer Emmons and Jeannie Bra-shears are entertained by their friends at lunch.
4. Christopher Pima Peruses the encyclopedia in the Great Hall.

After school, Lincoln Brinnall takes advantage of the sunny weather and plays outside. 4. Eugene Hastey and Alexandra Ootkin return to school with smiles.

Second Grade: Ms. Schneider

Mary - One of my favorite subjects is reading.

Simrum - I like to eat lunch because if we didn't have lunch the only meal of the day would be Milk Lunch.

Heather - Activities are nice sometimes when the class isn't noisy.

Meredith - The thing I like the most is swimming. I like underwater because it seems like you are in a different world.

Tad - I like computers, art, super silent drawing, soccer, pottery, French, classroom games, classroom activities, reading, milk lunch, lunch, swimming, nerf pool.

Cheryl - I like SSR which means super silent reading.

Dieauka - I like working with pottery and also the opening of the day.

Jennifer - I like recess. Recess is the time you can yell. That's what I like about school.

Karissa - One of my okay subjects is social science. We are making topographical maps which means bumpy maps.

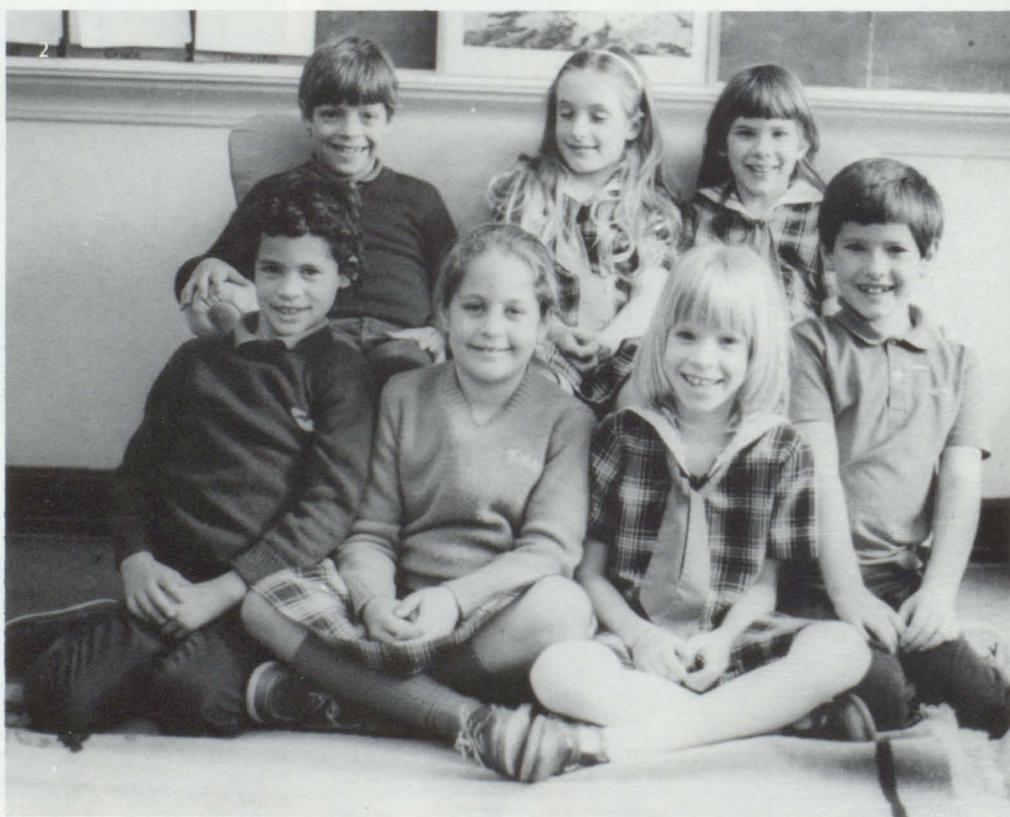

Ann - I also like French because I like different languages and other things!

Tim - I like computers, but one of the best things I like is Ms. Schneider.

Upper School Student Life

Birthday

Annie Celebrates 101! Annually, on the first day of school, the students, faculty, and parents celebrate Annie Wright's birthday. The many events that take place include skits, prophecies, and eating birthday cake. Melissa Lang and Nina Boss, both from the class of '84, gave a clue which the yellow ties needed to find the spade. Each senior then ate a piece of cake before the class could leave to hunt for the spade.

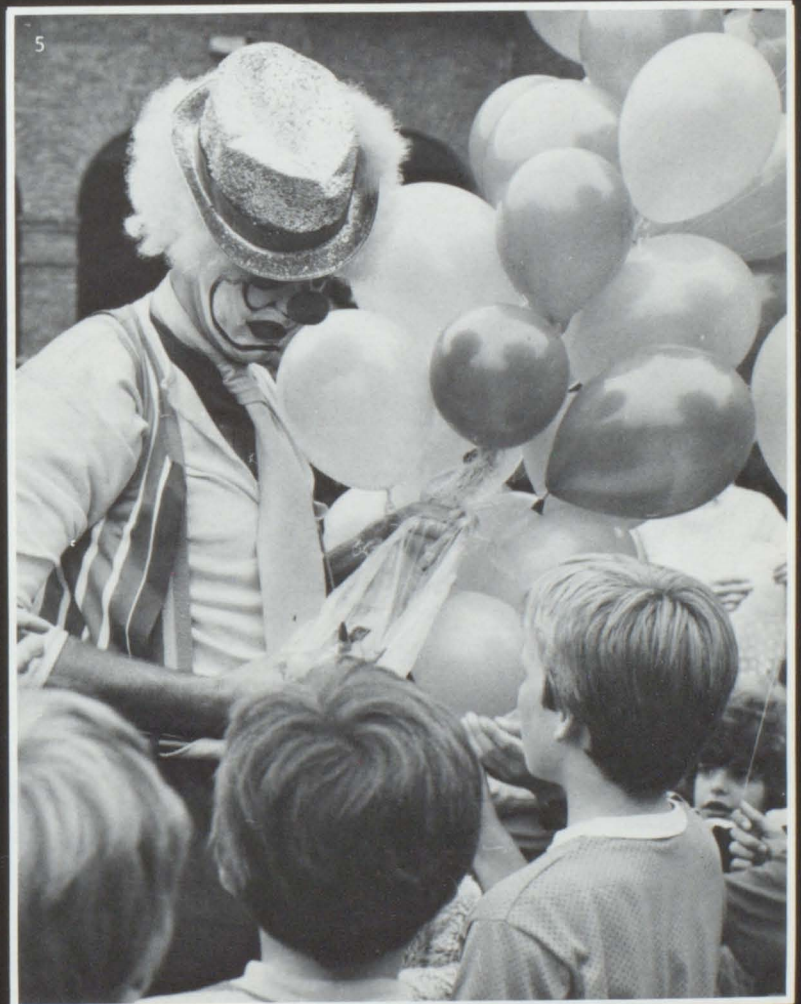

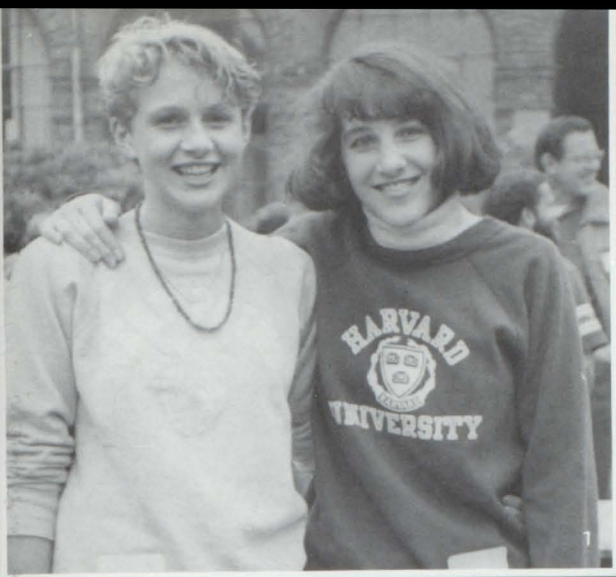

1. Seniors go spade hunting! 2. Miki Hishinuma, Sahomi Yoshida, Motoko Nakamura look on to new traditions. 3. Senior advisor, Diane Soucey passes out cake to the anxiously awaiting seniors. 4. Bosom buddies, Jodi Gustavson and Darlene Baxter.

Back To School Picnic

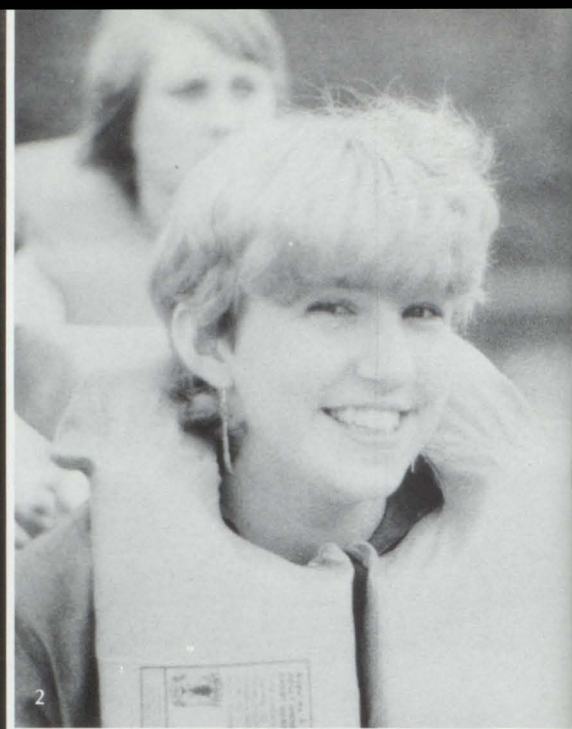

Apple-pressing ... Clowns ... Cold Weather. This year's picnic was held on September 21. There were plenty of activities for everyone—press apples, play games, get to know one another and, of course, EAT!!

1. Leslie Suggett and Margaret Smith are happy to be back at school. 2. Bob Klarsch welcomes everyone. 3. Mick Larkin and Cynthia Roberts: caught in the act! 4. Showing their winning smiles are Lorraine Tan and Olivia Williamson. 5. Jim Vogelzang, board member, clowns around.

Island Lake

Getting to know each other. The first weekend of school was spent at Island Lake, which all Upper School students and faculty members attended. A few of the most memorable experiences were skits, the ropes course, the group puzzle and the cabin competition, which cabins 1 and 12 won!

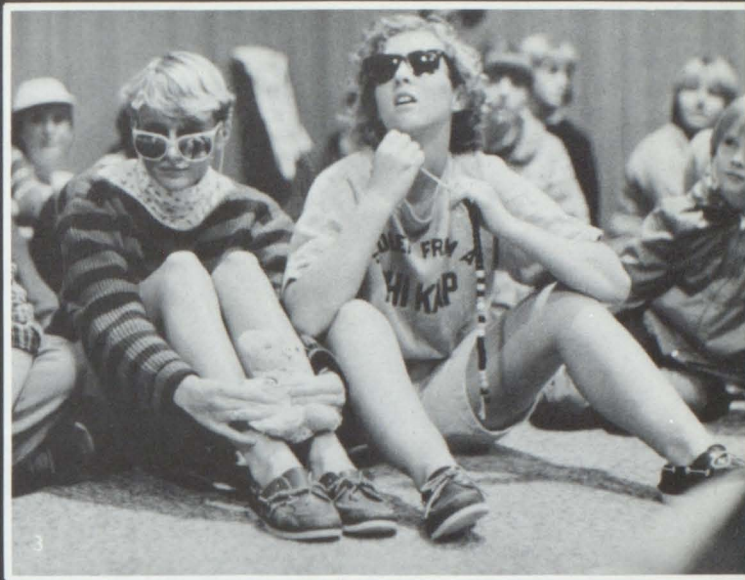

1. Frances Leung, Carol Noel and Stephanie Cook perform their skit in front of students and faculty. 2. Andrea Kirby enjoys canoeing on Island Lake. 3. Voni Wiggins taking time-out alone. 4. Shinobu Nomizo, Nozomi Sato, and Lois La Garce show their apple peeling skills. 5. Cynthia Roberts, Tuney Layton, Andrea Ferguson, Diane Soucey and Elizabeth French prepare for their acting debut.

1. Kei Okada and Shinobu Nomizo love the view of the duck pond from the bridge. 2. Bev Brown, Katrina Weihs, Joy Ottum, and Karen Jaskar put their best feet forward.

3. Leslie Suggett and Mary Anne Luce are incognito at the Lighthouse. 4. Jim Timson gives Joy Ottum a welcome hug. 5. Students in pursuit of trivial knowledge.

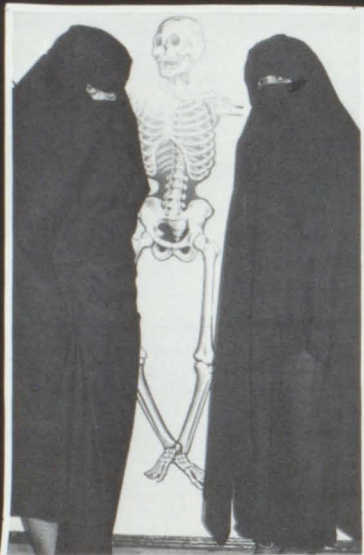

All Hallow's Eve

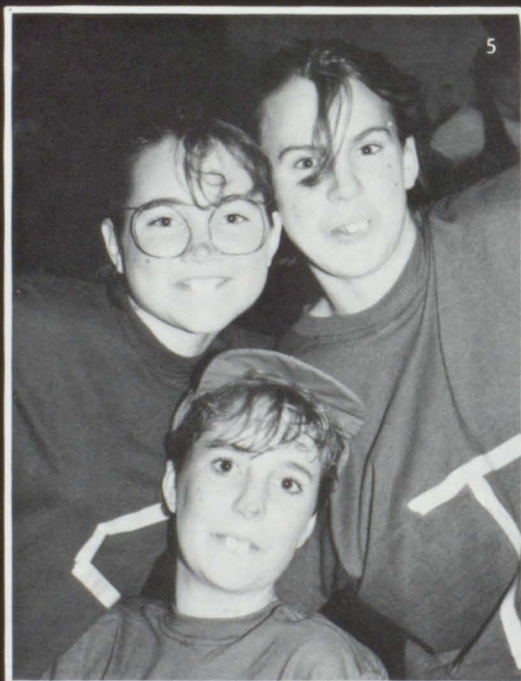

The annual S.A.C. (Student Athletic Council) Halloween Party was held on October 31, 1984. Each class performed lip syncs to music from the Bee Gees to Madonna. Judging was difficult, but the sophomores finally received the ice cream cake. Judging the costumes proved difficult also; some winners included Janet Ingraham as Night, Cindy Freeland as a tooth and Nozomi Sato, Kei Okada and Shinobu Nomizo as patient, nurse and doctor.

3

1. Cindy Freeland dresses as a tooth with no decay. 2. Veiled women, Brenda Jean Burns and Tami Nassiri, remain undercover until late into the evening. 3. Marii Horiguchi and Miki Hishinuma are sweeter and nuttier than M and M's.

4. Ghosts, Rebekah Holmberg, Andrea Kirby and Sarah Lewis, dance to the "Monster Mash". 5. Chipmunks, Holly Bamford, Tricia Noel and Cami Cooper show off their healthy teeth. 6. Madonna imitator Sue Engen lip syncs to "Everybody."

Clash of the Wrights

Powder puff football was the focus of Friday, November 9. Charles Wright's challenge was met with a great deal of spirit at Annie Wright. While the team practiced faithfully, the Pep Club showed its enthusiasm by plastering Charles Wright with Gator posters the night before the game. Even though we lost, the game was exciting for both players and fans. The evening concluded with a dance hosted by the Charles Wright football players.

1. Cheer Squad members, Stefanie Reitzug, Holly Bamford and Cami Cooper cheer on the Gators.
2. Fans Elizabeth French and Toney Layton are amazed at the Gator's ability.

1984 Gators: (Top) V. Wiggins, L. Tan, T. Backus, A. Pegram, M. Burrows, A. Baxter, Coach Timson, Coach Fallat, A. Fort, Coach Mitchell, O. Williamson, S. Engen, (Middle) J. Roloff, T. Heflin, U. Ohm, L. Glazier, L. Bales, Coach Youngs, (Bottom) M. Luce, R. Ohm, J. Larrabee, L. LaGarce, K. Jaskar, C. Colombo, N. Sato.

3. The Annie Gators prepare themselves for another offensive play.
4. The Tarriers and Gators remain friends after a tough battle.
5. Coach Jack Fallat discusses the next offensive play with Liz Glazier.

Tea Time

The Social Committee held the Mother/Daughter Tea on November 2. It began with violin and piano music performed by Lynn Johnson and Gail Tonkin. The Upper School Choir, Swing Choir and Kei Okada also provided entertainment. Anne Blake narrated the fashion show for which Jay Jacobs supplied the clothes.

1. Anne Blake gives an amusing narration of the fashion show. 2. Stephanie Carr struts down the walkway in a plaid jumper. 3. Andrea Everitt with her adopted "mother" Mary Ann Ball. 4. Chris Reardon and Liz Glazier model fluorescent green, pink, yellow and orange.

5. Carolyn Jones and her grandmother share a cup of tea. 6. Model Anisa Keith and her mother enjoy each others' company after the show.

Christmas Bazaar

The theme of the Parents' Club bazaar this year was a patchwork Christmas. Wonderful, family-owned quilts were draped around the school to illustrate the theme, and each Lower School class made a quilt which was auctioned during the day. The gym was filled with art booths, and, from all accounts, the bazaar was successful.

1. Julia Smith and Laura Bales distribute candy canes in the front hall. 2. Rachel Fine, Tricia Noel and Patti Spaulding entertain people at the bazaar. 3. Cami Cooper and Katie Miller talk with Scrooge near the jail. 4. Stephanie Miller and Carla Colombo smile pleasantly as they attend the coat room.

Dance Fever

Zulu, a rising band of the area, entertained students and their guests at the Christmas dance. Student Council sponsored the annual event.

1. Tami Nassiri poses happily for the camera. 2. Anisa Keith and Stephanie Cook share a joke. 3. Zulu croons ecstatically to the crowd.

4. Taking a break from dancing are Stephanie Carr, Ute Ohm, Jade Larrabee and Liz Glazier. 5. Tricia Fejfar and Blain Gobeze entertain their guests. 6. Voni Wiggins just wants to dance.

Monte Carlo Night

Gambling and an auction highlighted the activities of Monte Carlo Night. The seventh grade sponsored the event by asking faculty members, students and parents to donate items for the auction. The items ranged from a candlelight dinner for four to a plate of goodies, and a plane ride to a pair of size 12 hiking boots. Everything was paid for with play money and high-bidders left happy.

1. Sarah Lewis plays around with bunnies Diane Soucey, Tuney Layton, and Andrea Ferguson. 2. Black Jack tests the skills of Stefanie Reitzug and Ann Cox. 3. Anne Blake goes crazy over money!

4. Watching other students gamble their money away occupies Josie Lewis. 5. Andrea Kirby and Rebekah Holmberg model their best duds for the crowd. 6. Fawn Li tries one more time at roulette.

101st

Founder's Day

The anniversary of our school's founding was celebrated this year on January 25. Bishop Cochrane presented the sermon at the morning chapel service which was followed by an all-school assembly and a reception for seniors and alumnae in the Great Hall. The annual surprises in the senior cake were found by seniors Tami Nassiri, (cross), Michelle Prebula (thimble), Johanna Rubin (ring) and no one found the dime. Elizabeth Appling-Bloch '63 and Marjorie Oda, M.D. '66 received the Alumnae Achievement Awards.

1. The Swing Choir sings "Embraceable You" to Bob Klarsch. 2. Elizabeth Appling-Bloch receives her award from Bob Klarsch. 3. Bishop Cochrane, Laura Gonyea-Partridge '70, and Karen Jaskar chat at the reception. 4. Beverley Brown receives the award for Marjorie Oda, M.D. 5. Senior advisor Diane Soucey passes out fortune cake to anxious seniors. 6. The choir sings for the assembly.

Mad Woman Of Chaillot

Students and faculty joined dramatic talents in February to stage the comical fairy tale "The Mad Woman of Chaillot." Set in Paris, the play is a story of good versus evil: the good and somewhat unusual street people try to thwart a plot by greedy entrepreneurs to blow up the city in search of oil. The play was enjoyed by all.

1. A. Blake is decked out as the Madwoman of Chaillot. 2. S. Lewis (Pierre) and R. Holmberg (Sergeant) strike a dramatic pose. 3. B. Horton clowns around. 4. J. Ingraham peddles her wares to a cafe customer. 5. M.A. Ball (singer) flirts with K. Habedank (customer). 6. M. Prebula (sound engineer) waits at her equipment.

SLOB Attack

The boarders were rudely interrupted from study hall by a band of wild S.L.O.B.s (Society for the Liberation of Boarders). They were dressed as terrorists and, armed with squirt guns, they marched the students down to the gym. Max Mitchell's band was waiting there with an hour of fast rock-n-roll! Beware, for the return of the S.L.O.B.s!

1. Max Mitchell and his band entertain the resident students. 2. And the surprise attack is on! 3. S.L.O.B.s Andrea Ferguson and Tuney Layton practice for the kidnapping. 4. Beryl Horton's toy gun playfully encourages students to have a good time. 5. The students finally realize that the attack is not a bad dream and the fun begins!

Lower School
Student Life

Ice Cream Day

Ice Cream Day, sponsored by the fifth grade, started the Lower School year with many happy faces — as well as tummies! On September 14 in the cloister area, ice-cream makers began their work of churning the ice, cream, and other ingredients. Finally, their hard work payed off and the end product was a much-loved treat by everyone—Lower School students, teachers, and invited guests.

Visit From The Firetruck

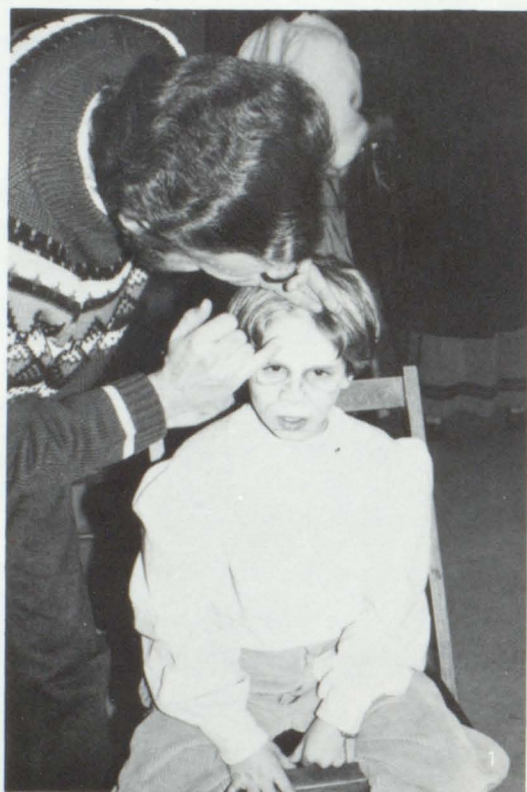

With sirens roaring the Big Red Firetruck from Station #1 arrived late to Annie Wright after having just fought a fire on October 11th. There awaiting it were the first and second graders who were quite amazed with the truck and its personnel, organized by Fireman Doug Schermerhorn. After a brief tour and explanation of the truck, the firemen had to speed away to fight another fire.

School Play

With much preparation, dedication, and Mrs. Sharples' and Mrs. Reeve's excellent direction, the third grade and additional lower-schoolers recreated the all-favorite A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. On December 18, with an audience of upper-schoolers, faculty, and parents, the young actors and actresses put on a marvelous production, and successfully portrayed the true spirit of Christmas ... BRAVO!

1. Mr. Credgington makes up Kristine Klein to play Marley's ghost.
2. Tiny Tim (Michael Schilling) and Fred (Phillip Howell) take another bow for their outstanding performance.
3. The townspeople, Becky Egan, Jeannie Brashers, Erica Ezell, Rachel La-Charite, and Joy Gonyea, contribute to the production with their pretty dresses.

4. Mr. and Mrs. Fezziwig: Jake Guadhola and Katie Vogelzang.

1. Gabriel Martin as Scrooge checks his account books.
2. Lindsay Bush, Cara Gustafson, Kelly Moore, and Adrian Conner portray ladies of the town.
3. Joy McBane gets made up to play the Spirit of Christmas Past.
4. The entire Christmas Carol cast gives a final farewell to the audience.
5. Mrs. Sharples and Mrs. Reeve accept flowers and the prize goose.

From Ghosts To Princesses

Many ghosts and goblins prepared their costumes for the traditional journey from the Lower School wing to the Great Hall for their Halloween program. As the children walked toward their destination, Upper School students and teachers lined the hallways to admire the children's costumes as they paraded past.

Kids And More Kids . . .

Student Council

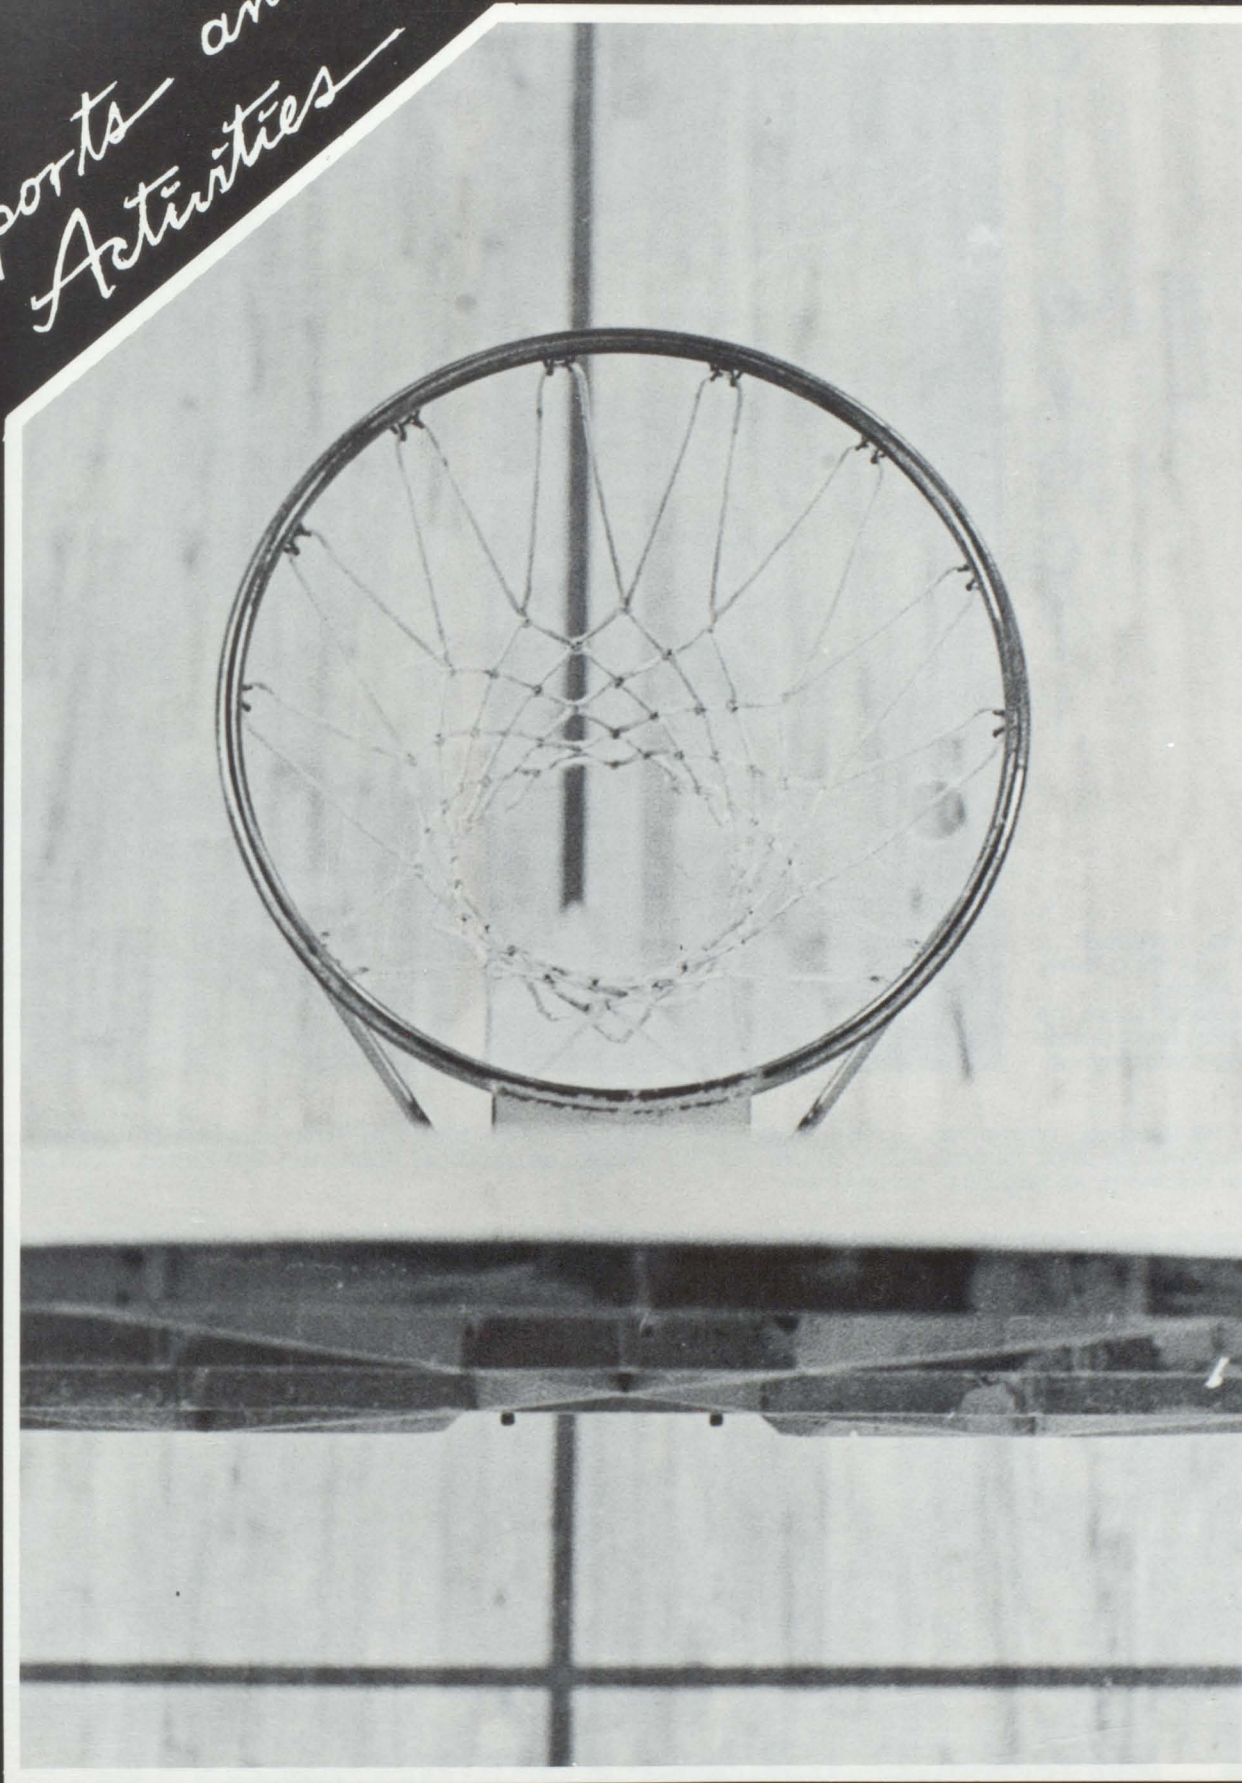

During 1984-1985 Lower School Student council had another used record and tape sale at the Christmas Carnival. We also had another successful paper drive which was quite memorable. All Lower School students helped make posters to hang in a hospital. All the patients very much enjoyed the creative posters.

The 7th and 8th grade volleyball team is seeing its first season of competition for Annie Wright. We entered each match with great enthusiasm and sportsmanship, didn't always come out victorious, but competed very well against the teams in our area. For our beginning players, this was their first taste of team competition and much fun was had by all.

Cross Country Off And Running!

The Cross-Country team, coached by Tune Layton was off and running almost as school opened. We first met as a group at Island Lake and didn't stop running until Halloween. Three runners from last year, Margaret Smith, Nozomi Sato, and Jodi Gustavson lent some experience to the team. The manager, Adrienne Fort, couldn't resist running in a meet or two herself, in between cutting oranges and holding sweatsuits. The team was joined this year by some new blood, Ruth Ohm, Elise Nelson, Leslie Suggett, Dawn Thompson and the fleet feet of Emily Robinson and Kelsey Wekell (6th grade). Carla Columbo also ran with the team as much as her injured knee would allow.

Cross country is a unique individual sport, with each runner pursuing her own goals and running approximately 5 km races with several of the six teams in our district. Between workouts, team dinners and meets, the season was great fun and a great success!

By Tune Layton.

(Right) Carla, Leslie and Dawn enjoy each others company while they run at Lincoln Park.

1. Elise makes a dazzling finish at Overlake.
2. Margaret and Nozomi, pals all the way!
3. "ON your mark . . . get set . . . go!"
4. Margaret and Leslie show Dawn and Nozomi the correct way to cross the line.

Patticakes,

Remember when we laughed and cried together? You can always tell me anything. I'm here.

Karen,

We'll be together. We're true friends. You're no U.F.O.!

Love you both, Lezlie

UB40, STAH, ZZ, Moonface Gouhlie, Tres Kool, Goohalla, Slick's family, Death week-end, and Tami I still hate you. It's been swell.

Wilemina Wiggins

Marilyn and Trish,

The BEACH PARTY was fun, I enjoyed the jet ski and bar-b-q-ing with the hairdryer and surfing, etc. I LOVE CARLOS; YOU LOVE JUDD AND NICK.

Love,

Gretch

P.S. Next time let's invite Mr. D.

Dear Andrea: You're so cute that we just feel like squeezing your eyeballs out! Sorry, Rebekah, we gotta go right now! Guess who?

Dear Jewel (Hoolia) and Tam,

What a year! At least we can say we lived to tell the story (stories) of deadline trauma, late nights, long week-ends, and general havoc. But we had lots of good times, too. So what if we mailed the last pages a month late and I worried myself into quiet hysteria; I still wouldn't Trade away the experiences we shared. You're both so special to me. Much love, Elizabeth

B-52'r Thanks for the 1st time and every time else. Love, Heinz Ket-chup.

Trish, Gretch, Voni — I'll never forget you!

To my best-friend EVER in the WHOLE WORLD With love — Ice a cella. Our pinc (he!he!) was special.

Mon ... jello ... ice a chella ... rum 2nd grade ... late night talks-getting to know each other ... all of these are never-forgotten memories of forever bestest friends, I love you.

Bunny ... Frosh Year Orientation Lake Chelan ... Mexican food ... Am. Lit talks — It's been real, love Muff. Elise ... Herbie's in the closet and Ed's getting off at the bus stop, so I better go check — love, Pooky.

Flab and Jemima ... 2nd period SH-Bored! Mucho love, Muskrat. "Frenchie".

Ms. Soucey. Sue ... I'll be out of juvie soon, you just wait! Love, Marguerita.

Nozo ... X-country STATE, my house, Yearbook, Chem, Grazie's-I'll love you forever, Margo. Sarah, Mandy, Andy, Bekah - U4iA #1 Fan.

My Cuz - Je t'aime. Von - THE NOSE. Stefie and Em - you guys are great. Fruit ... you're one of a special kind - Thanks for tons of funs ... I love you - MAG. Thank you all for the gifts you have given me - the laughter, the love and for being my friends. Love, Margaret

Good night, good night!
Parting is such sweet sorrow, that I shall say good night till it be morrow.

not what we may be.

Hamlet Act IV, Sc. v

When sorrows come, they come not single spies, but in battalions.

Hamlet Act IV Sc. v

There's rosemary, that's for remembrance . . . and there is pansies, that's for thoughts.

Hamlet Act IV Sc. v

There's a special providence in the fall of a sparrow.

If it be now,
'tis not to come; if it be not to come, it will be now; if it be not now, yet
it will come: the readiness is all.

Dear Miss Ball,

The Sheild Staff would especially like to thank you for your unending supply of help, this year and previous years. We have appreciated your continuous optimism and your will to work, no matter how inconvenient. Your energy and bright, cheery face have helped us through many difficult times. We will miss you!

A special thank you to Ms. Goodall for her infinite supply of wonderful photographs.

A special thank you to Nozomi Sato for her headline artwork.

A special thank you to all the AWS teachers for understanding our excuses.

And, finally, a special thank you to our families.

Thank you, my
